

BRITISH SEA LORD RESIGNS POSITION

Prince Louis of Battenberg, First Sea Lord of Admiralty Has to Retire

OF AUSTRIAN ORIGIN

Prince Louis Was Born In Austria, But Came to England and Was Naturalized When 14

NEWSPAPERS ARE AGAINST HIM

BULLETIN.

London, Oct. 30, 1:30 a. m.—The King has appointed Prince Louis of Battenberg a member of the Privy Council.

London, Oct. 29.—Prince Louis of Battenberg, against whom there have been no open charges, but much idle gossip because of his Austrian origin, has resigned his position as first sea lord of the Admiralty, and it is thought probable because of a newspaper campaign against his holding such a high command.

Announcement of Prince Louis' resignation was made tonight in the court circular, which recorded that the prince had been received in audience by the king on relinquishing his appointment.

Prince Louis of Battenberg, although born in Austria came to England as a boy and was naturalized in 1868 when he was only 14 years old.

Prince Louis of Battenberg is a vice admiral and personal aide de camp to the King. He was born at Graz, Austria, in 1854, the eldest son of Prince Alexander of Hesse. He married his cousin, Princess Victoria, daughter of Louis IV, grand duke of Hesse and of Prince Alice, Queen Victoria's daughter. He was naturalized a British subject and entered the Royal Navy in 1868.

By marriage Prince Louis is related to Emperor William of Germany, the emperor being the eldest son of Queen Victoria's eldest daughter. The wife of Prince Louis is a sister to the Russian empress and cousin to the German empress.

Prince Louis of Battenberg served in the Egyptian war and was director of naval intelligence, second in command of the Mediterranean fleet, commander in chief of the Third and Fourth divisions of the Home fleet and second sea lord. He was appointed first sea lord in 1912.

In 1905 he visited the United States in command of a British squadron.

Rise in Navy Was Slow.
His rise in the navy was slower than that of most cadets, for he had been in the navy twenty-three years before he was promoted to a captain and it was another thirteen years before he became a rear-admiral. Even after that he went up by easy stages and finally, his great ability and services being recognized, he was appointed first sea lord in 1912, a few years after his visit to America.

Outside of the fact that he was born in Austria the chief argument his opponents made against him was that he is the brother in law of Prince Henry of Prussia, who holds a somewhat similar command in the German navy.

There were rumors sometime ago that Prince Louis had been confined in the tower of London but these were to be given serious consideration although the authorities deemed it expedient that he should appear more in public instead of confining himself to the admiralty, where since the outbreak of the war he had been working night and day directing the strategy of the navy, the prince being considered one of the most noted strategists of the admiralty.

Following this, some of the less influential papers took the matter up and asked that some statement should be made regarding the fact that an officer of German birth should be retained as the professional head of the navy.

The Globe for example, while expressing sympathy for the prince, whom it described as "himself, the soul of honor but who is the subject of malignant gossip and unfounded suspicions," asked that for his own sake, "no less for that of the nation over whose destinies he now exercises such paramount influence," some authoritative statement should be issued of "a nature so emphatic and so unqualified as to remove at once and forever every cloud of doubt and to silence every breath of rumor."

The prince's defenders quickly replied with the recovery of the services of himself and his family to England and, rather strangely, his nephew, Prince Maurice of Battenberg, was the first member of the royal family to be killed in the war.

EIGHTY-SIX KILLED.

Tokio, Oct. 30.—11:15 a. m.—Two officers and eighty-four seamen on board the Russian cruiser Jemchug were killed when the German cruiser Emden torpedoed and sank her in Penang harbor.

SECRETARY BRYAN DENOUNCES CUMMINS

ASSERTS IOWA HAS BEEN MOST BITTER TOWARD WILSON

Secretary of State Tells Voters of Iowa if They Want to Stab President in the Back to Cast Their Ballot for Cummins.

Waterloo, Ia., Oct. 29.—"No other member of the United States senate has been as bitter in his attacks on President Wilson as Senator Cummins," said Secretary Bryan in a speech delivered here this afternoon.

The Secretary of State endorsed the candidacy of Maurice Connolly, the Democratic opponent of Senator Cummins. He reviewed the acts of the president during the past two years and said: "President Wilson has made good." Continuing, Secretary Bryan said, "if the people of Iowa are not in sympathy with the president of these latter days and want to make the two years of terms barren of remedial results they will vote for Senator Cummins. If you want to stab the president in the back, no sharper knife than Cummins can be found."

In speaking of President Wilson's record, Secretary Bryan, said that no other president had worked harder, nor achieved more than President Wilson has during the past two years. He spoke of tariff revision, income tax, currency legislation, trusts, the Mexican war, merchant marine and peace plans.

"The Democratic administration has laid the foundation for universal peace in treaties signed by thirty nations and endorsed in principle by practically every other nation of importance in the world," said Mr. Bryan. "These treaties provide that questions of which there is a possibility of settlement there are to be submitted to an international tribunal with one year in which to let passion subside. Had Europe been given one week in which to deliver counsel upon the advisability of war, there would have been no war in Europe at this time."

Mr. Bryan arrived in Waterloo in a special train accompanied by Congressman Connolly, Judge M. J. Wade, and several candidates on the Democratic state ticket. John T. Hamilton, Democratic candidate for governor, came here from his home in Cedar Rapids this morning and spoke before the arrival of the Bryan party. Mr. Connolly gave a short talk in which he praised the work of President Wilson.

BEGIN REVIEWING ARGUMENTS PRESENTED BY RAILROADS

Commission Special Counsel Declares Only New Fact Adduced by Carriers to Justify Pleas is the European War.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Reviewing arguments presented to the Interstate Commerce commission today by counsel for the thirty-five eastern railway systems seeking a general advance in freight rates, Louis A. Brandeis, the commission's special counsel, declared the only new fact adduced by the carriers to justify their plea was the European war. No specific showing has been made, he said, as to the injustice of any existing rates and he expressed the opinion that if the commission saw fit to grant the advance, thereby modifying its previous ruling, it would exceed its legal powers and invade the province of congress to declare governmental policies.

Mr. Brandeis was followed by F. B. James and E. E. Paulson, representing shippers of brick and tile; Frank Lyon and Charles M. Johnston, appearing for Pennsylvania coal producers; Luther M. Walters, in behalf of lumber and livestock shippers and Rush Butler, counsel for the Chicago Association of Commerce. All maintained that nothing had been brought out at the new hearings to justify the advance of any specific rate and that the relief sought by the carriers was beyond the legal power of the commission to extend.

Eight hours was allowed for argument the time being equally divided between those advocating and those opposing the application. The case for the railroads was opened by George S. Patterson, of the Pennsylvania system who was followed by J. L. Minnis of the Washash, O. E. Butterfield of the New York Central and others who dealt with specific phases of the case. Mr. Patterson urged that the proposed increases were reasonable and declared the road was not asking for them "as a matter of grace."

TAGGART SUIT WITHDRAWN

Indianapolis, Oct. 29.—The suit for $25,000 damages for alleged slander filed yesterday by Thomas Taggart, Democratic national committeeman from Indiana, against Delavan Smith, owner of the Indianapolis News, was withdrawn today. Mr. Taggart said the paper retracted its charges.

REBELS HAVE SCATTERED.

London, Oct. 30.—2:30 a. m.—A Reuter despatch from Capetown, Union of South Africa says that Gen. Botha, commander of the defense force, reports that the rebel Gen. Berers' commandoes have been scattered and are not likely to re-appear.

—RUSSIA—

Washington, Oct. 29.—All of the German army corps on the left bank of the Vistula, in Poland, are in full retreat, according to an official report from Petrograd made public here tonight by the Russian embassy.

The report follows:

"On October 28th, we overcame the resistance of the troops of the enemy endeavoring to put up a fight to the north of the river Pilica. At the present moment all of the Austro-German corps on the left bank of the Vistula are in full retreat."

"Strykoff Elow and Nowomost are occupied by our troops. Radom is occupied by our cavalry, we have captured several thousand prisoners, guns, scores of machine guns, supply trains and automobiles."

"In Galicia there are no changes. On the East Prussian front the first German army corps supported by other troops in keeping up active fire before Bakajolewo. The losses of the enemy are very heavy."

FIGHTING LESS SEVERE ON YSER THAN PREVIOUSLY

Both Sides Are Resting—Belgians Have Fought Above Expectations.

Amsterdam, Oct. 29.—Via London—The Stius correspondent of the Telegraph says:

"Fighting on both banks of the Yser continues, but it is less severe than previously. Both sides are taking a rest. The Belgians have fought above expectations and amidst the din of the battle their cries of 'Louvain' and 'Termonde' could be heard."

"A less number of wounded are arriving at Bruges. Fresh troops are continually marching to the front. A German officer said to the correspondent:

"We cannot do much here but we must try. The bayonet charges are terrible. Some of our men are pierced through and through. The men are standing breast deep in the water and the terrible fire of the warships were killed are Middlemoke and the canal water was red with blood."

"The Germans are digging entrenchments in the direction of Thielt, behind the line of Nieuport-Dismude."

Mrs. E. C. McClure of Beardstown was in the city Thursday.

CHECK GERMAN NIGHT ATTACKS

Allies Succeed in Taking Some Ardor Out of the German Night Attacks

MOVE REINFORCEMENTS

The Invaders Are Moving Reinforcements to Continue Battle Along Yser River

FRENCH DESTROY ENTIRE REGIMENT

BULLETIN

TOKIO, Oct. 30.—The Russian embassy here announces that Turkey has opened war on Russia.

Paris, Oct. 29.—King Winter has made his presence felt in the last day or two over the entire field of operations in which the gigantic armies are at grips in Belgium, France and Alsace-Lorraine. The nights have been cold, but this has not interfered with the operations which have continued, although not with such fury as in the beginning of the week.

The allies, according to officers returning from the front, have succeeded in taking some of the ardor out of the German night attacks, during which they inflicted terrible losses on the invaders, who seemed for a time as though main force would carry them through towards their objective, the channel ports.

The Belgians now control the railroad between Nieuport and Dixmude, as well as the river Yser, where the Bavarian troops had their wish fulfilled that they encounter the British, which they did to their cost.

The forces of the allies in that region are said to have the Germans well in hand but strong reinforcements are moving in that direction to continue the battle which has been so well begun by the allies.

From Ypres down to Arras fighting of the severest kind went on all day. For the most part it favored the allies, who not only held tenaciously to their position but made a considerable advance at some points.

Along the entrenched line from the Aisne to the Argonne forest there is little to report except that Gen. von Kluck seems to have abandoned his attempt begun early in the week to break the allies' lines and has been obliged to give way in many places and retire to trenches in the rear.

Regiment Destroyed.
One east Wuertemberg regiment, numbering a thousand, is reported to have been destroyed north of the Chalade wood, in the Argonne region. The Germans were retreating after an unsuccessful attack when they decided to return and try to surprise the pursuing French.

The Germans marched two by two through a rocky mountain pass and reached within a few hundred yards of the French camp when a French forerunner gave the alarm. His comrades rushed forward and heaped rocks at the end of the path and poured a murderous fire on the Wuertembergers, who endeavored to make their escape from the defile but found the passage blocked.

The Germans then hoisted a white flag and when a French officer with a small party advanced to receive the surrender the Germans reopened fire killing ten of the French. The infuriated French troops then opened a terrific fire with their machine guns and killed the entire German column.

INDUSTRIAL WORKER OF WORLD IS FOUND NOT GUILTY BY JURY

Becky Edelson, Charged With Disorderly Conduct, Conducts Her Own Case Successfully.

Tarrytown, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Becky Edelson, Industrial Worker of the World, was not guilty of disorderly conduct when she spoke here last spring with other anarchist leaders, a jury decided here today after twenty minutes deliberation.

Miss Edelson conducted her own case and chose the jurors with great care. She objected to most of the veniremen and a second panel was called before a jury was obtained.

The only witness called by Assistant District Attorney F. X. Fallon was the policeman who arrested Miss Edelson. The prosecutor asked the jury as "public spirited citizens" to convict her.

The defendant summoned no witnesses in her own behalf but rested her case on her summing up to the jury. She said she had only exercised the right of free speech and declared that whether or not she was convicted she would return to Tarrytown and make speeches, as would others working for the "cause". She said she had violated no law.

War News Summarized

The two outstanding features of the great war are the entrance of Turkey into the struggle as reported from Petrograd and the retirement as first sea lord of the admiralty of Prince Louis of Battenberg.

Ever since the war began the attitude of Turkey has been the subject of doubt. It was reported a number of times, that Turkey was on the verge of joining forces with the Germans; it was even said that Germany had supplied the Ottoman government with large sums of money. Great Britain warned Turkey to keep off and recent advices from Constantinople indicated that Turkey intended to maintain her neutrality.

Now comes word that a Turkish cruiser has been reported in the Crimea and that another Turkish steamer has threatened the seaport of Novorossiysk on the Black Sea.

Under stress of pursuit by British warships, the German cruisers Goeben and Breslau early in the war took refuge at Constantinople. They were purchased by the Turkish government but the German officers and crews were retained. Later they sailed forth and a warning was issued in Russia that should the Russian warships meet these two cruisers, they would open fire. The former German warships have proved a cause of irritation throughout the last few weeks to the allies and Great Britain asked the Ottoman government to remove the Germans from the vessels, but Turkey replied that this was a domestic question.

Meanwhile Turkey has been under surveillance by the allies. Her action in the present attack on Russian seaports has not been explained but it is possible that her injection into the war may bring to arms some of the Balkan states which have up to the present remained quiescent.

The retirement of Prince Louis of Battenberg from the British admiralty will be learned with no surprise, for the British admiral who held the post of first sea lord, has been the subject of a newspaper campaign because of his Austrian birth and his German connection. In his letter of resignation Prince Louis says he has been driven to the painful conclusion that his birth and parentage has had the effect of impairing his usefulness on the board of the admiralty and that he withdrew, hoping thereby to facilitate the task of administration to which he had devoted his life.

Along the battle fronts, both in Belgium and the North of France and in the eastern arena the same story is being told of undetermined actions. The British admiralty continues to call attention to the effective service rendered by the warships off the North Sea coast; the French tell of German recoules and French progress; the Germans, speaking of the battles in France and Belgium declare that their progress is entirely satisfactory. The Russian hosts are according to advices, pushing the Germans and Austrians back. This is a certain extent German has admitted but the Austrians aver they are virtually holding their own.

The report that Greece has taken possession of Southern Albania is causing a profound impression in Rome but in Italian political circles it is believed that Greece will not be supported by Great Britain and France.

PREPARED TO TAKE OFFENSIVE

San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 29.—General Benjamin Hill, in charge of the constitutionalist forces, is prepared to take the offensive in a campaign against the Maytorena forces as soon as the Aguas Calientes conference is adjourned, a message from Naco, Ariz., tonight announced. Maytorena's army is reported retreating from the border towards Heomolillo.

FIGHTING IS RESUMED NEAR MEXICO CITY

FOLLOWERS OF EMILIANO ZAPATA AND CONSTITUTIONALISTS CLASH

Government Asserts Zapata Forced the Fighting—Carranza Ready With 10,000 Troops to Block Any Southern Movement of General Villa.

Mexico City, Oct. 29.—Fighting was resumed today near San Angel, on the outskirts of the capital, between followers of Emiliano Zapata and constitutionalists. Colonel Fragoso, with cavalry, infantry and artillery, captured Tizapank which is connected with the capital by an electric car line and drove Gen. Tacheco to the nearby hills. The casualties in the action were not made public. Tizapank had been in the hands of the Zapata men for several weeks.

The government says the fighting was forced by the followers of Zapata and that its troops were compelled to resist in order to protect the capital.

Ready to Block Villa.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Official reports received here tonight said Gen. Carranza had 10,000 troops at Leon, twenty-five miles south of Aguas Calientes, ready to block any southward movement of Villa forces in the event the Aguas Calientes convention fails to effect a peaceful solution of Mexico's difficulties.

Carranza had a considerable force in the hills southeast of Aguas Calientes and the Leon garrison dominates the railroad to Mexico City.

Tonight's despatches told of a fight 40 miles east of Aguas Calientes Tuesday between Carranza troops under Gen. Triana and some of Villa's forces. Twenty of Triana's men were said to have been killed and 150 taken prisoners.

U. S. MARINES ARE ORDERED TO PORT-AU-PRINCE, HAITI

Transport Hancock Gets Orders to Proceed With All Possible Speed.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Orders to proceed with all possible speed from dominican waters to Port-au-Prince, the rebel-held capital of Haiti, were sent by the navy department today to the Transport Hancock, which has on board a full regiment of marines. At the same time the battleship Kansas was ordered to Port-au-Prince from Vera Cruz. The Hancock should arrive tomorrow and the Kansas probably Saturday. The cruiser Tacoma already is at Port-au-Prince and a detachment of her marines was landed last week to protect the American consulate, after an understanding had been reached with both factions.

What further steps shall be taken to protect the lives and property of Americans and other foreigners probably will be left for the present to the naval officers on the scene. No official report had reached Washington today of the latest disturbances in Port-au-Prince but earlier despatches announcing that Davilmar Theodore, having proclaimed himself president, was marching against the capital, caused the state department to ask the navy to prepare to deal with a serious situation.

The marines on board the Hancock have just finished serving as watchers at the polls for the presidential election in the dominican republic. The voting there closed last night but the result has not been announced.

WILL RELEASE VESSELS CARRYING AMERICAN COPPER

Embargo on Exportation of Copper to Belligerent Countries Has Not Yet Reached England.

Washington, Oct. 29.—After a conference between acting Secretary Lansing of the state department, and Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, late today it was stated authoritatively that Great Britain probably would release the vessels carrying American copper detained at Gibraltar.

It was learned that the Italian government already has declared an embargo on the exportation of copper to belligerent countries but that the notification had not formally reached England. As soon as the fact is communicated through official channels the steamers destined to Italy will be permitted to continue their voyage, according to the view of British officials here unless some other circumstances in connection with the case not yet reported develops. It is not known yet whether Sweden and Greece have declared embargoes on the exportation of copper.

The principal object of the British ambassador's visit to Mr. Lansing was to correct an impression current yesterday that Great Britain would protest against Secretary McAdoo's order to collectors of customs asking them to withhold from publication the nature of cargoes until thirty days after ships cleared American ports. The British ambassador issued the following statement of explanation:

"The United States government has of course, a perfect right to resume whatever regulations it thinks fit. Foreign powers have no reason to complain."

ANOTHER DAY OF COMPARATIVE CALM

Fighting Has Degenerated Into Isolated Attacks and Counter-Attacks

DIVIDE LOSSES EQUALLY

Germans Claim to Have Made Progress Near Nieuport—French Report No Change

RUSSIANS SUCCESSFUL IN POLAND

London, Oct. 29.—The battle of the Yser and the series of fights which has taken place along the whole front in Belgium and France appear, with the troops now exhausted, to have degenerated into numerous isolated attacks and counter attacks in which the gains and losses are about equally divided between the combatants.

French Report No Change.

On that part of the battle front nearest the sea, where the Germans have delivered repeated attacks with daily increasing forces, in their effort to make their way to Dunkirk and eventually to Calais and where the allies have offered such stubborn resistance, there has been another day of comparative calm and although the Germans in their morning bulletin claim to have made some progress to the south of Nieuport, the French in their communication this afternoon say there is no change.

Germans Working Inland.

In fact, as was stated, the Germans seemed to have transferred their more serious operations inland and to be trying to break through the allied lines from Lille which, if successful, would compel the allies, who are holding the front through Ypres to the coast to fall back toward Dunkirk.

Troops Must Have Rest.

However, nothing of great moment is likely to be accomplished until the troops who have been fighting steadily for a fortnight have been given some rest and reinforcements arrive to fill up the great gaps which have been made in both armies as a result of the continuous artillery and infantry attacks.

Try to Better Positions.

In the meantime there has been some sharp fighting while each side is endeavoring to hold the positions they at present occupy or to secure better positions which would give an advantage when the next big battle breaks. Both claim to have been successful in this and the official reports are full of sentences such as "the enemy's attacks have been repulsed" or "we have made progress."

Pushing Attack Toward Verdun.

The same thing is going on to the eastward, where the Germans are pushing their long promised attack toward Verdun, while the French are doing all in their power to keep them away from that fortress. In all of these attacks prisoners and guns are lost by one side or the other, while trenches are evacuated.

More Decisive in Poland.

In Poland, where the Austrians and Germans are retiring before fresh armies brought up by Russia, something more decisive has occurred. Having a week ago driven back the German right which was advancing on Warsaw, the Russians have now struck at their center, southwest of the Polish capital and, according to the Petrograd report, have broken the resistance of the fast units of the armies which are trying to maintain themselves north of the Pillica river. The Russian cavalry has re-occupied Radom, where many men and guns and much war material has been captured.

On the east Prussian frontier along which line the Germans took the offensive, both sides lay claim to success.

Situation More Favorable.

In South Africa the situation appears to be more favorable. General Louis Botha, the premier, is at the head of the army which is operating against the rebellious commands under Generals De Wet and Beyers.

With the presence of German mines off the north coast of Ireland, which made Republicanism and Business.

The Republican rally at the court house last night was marked by old time enthusiasm and augured well for the success of the party at the coming election. Such stress was laid upon the need of a return to Republican principles if prosperity is to be restored, and such proof was given of the extravagance of the Democratic administration that the auditors were impressed anew with the great underlying facts which confront them at this time. They were impressed that it is indeed a time when the common good should be considered rather than the mere personal preferences of some individual voter.

The idea seemed to run through all the addresses that whatever differences there may have been in the past, that now is the time to forget them and for all to work together with the one and great purpose in view—of restoring prosperous conditions. The statement is somewhat hackneyed, that the Democratic party has never been known to attempt tariff legislation without injuring business, but it is nevertheless a truth which will not down and the fact that the lesson must be learned over again every fifteen or twenty years does not lessen its importance.

The facts and figures presented, too, emphasized in a new way how hollow were the Democratic promises of economy in government. In this state, before the last general election, they raised loud and long complaints about a Republican administration that appropriated $29,000,000 and within a few months after their ascendancy into state control the Democratic administration had appropriated $28,000,000. The same reckless extravagance has also prevailed in national affairs.

There is no doubt that Republicans who study the real facts of present conditions, who consider what the Democratic administrations, national and state, have done in a business way, will have brought home to them the knowledge that the only hope for business betterment means a return of the Republican party into power.

Would Serve City and County.

The fact that Anklinson Thomason, Republican candidate for commissioner, lives so near to Jacksonville and has for years been so closely identified with business here, will no doubt give him a large vote within the city proper next Tuesday. Mr. Thomason's extensive farming interests are but a few miles west of Jacksonville, and all his life this has been his city for "trading." He and the members of his family are frequent visitors in Jacksonville, and this is their base of supplies. It has naturally come about that through these years Mr. Thomason is genuinely and intelligently interested in Jacksonville and the county.

As a resident of the county and as experienced farmer he is familiar also with the needs of the country precincts, and if elected to the office he is seeking, he can be counted on to give careful attention to the needs and demands of both city and county, not only from the fact that he is a man of good judgment but from the important fact that he is familiar with and interested in the needs of both Jacksonville and the county.

Lining Up For Sherman.

A former Jacksonville man who is now living in Evanston, who is a strong supporter of Senator Sherman has written to a friend here of the senatorial outlook from a Cook county viewpoint. He compares the primary vote of last September in Evanston with that of the 1912 and the figures show in a significant way how Republicans who supported Roosevelt in 1912 are lining up now for Sherman. The writer of the letter says:

"It looks to me like he is going to win easily. Reports from over the state show that he will have about a 100,000 plurality outside of Cook county. We find that Robins is cutting into Sullivan's vote terrifically. The Bryanites and Democratic radicals cannot stand for Sullivan and about half of them are going to support Robins; but at least fifty per cent of those up here who voted for Roosevelt will vote for Sherman. I live in a hot-bed of the Progressives, but I find that personal dislike are bringing a great many of these people back to the Republican party."

Sherman is to speak at the Evanston Theatre Friday night. During his primary campaign, in 1912, he carried Evanston with the largest majority of any place in the state. At the 1912 election, of the 4,500 Republican votes, 3,500 were cast for Roosevelt and 900 for Taft, with the rest for Wilson. At the primary last month, the Republicans polled 2,200 votes, so you see we have a chance to carry Evanston for Sherman, though the Progressives claim that they will poll 60 per cent of Roosevelt's vote for their candidates.

As Borah Sees It.

One of the strongest statements of the support of Roger C. Sullivan for United States senator by the Wilson administration is made by Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, in his speech before a Republican meeting in Chicago, recently.

Senator Borah's speech said: "The kind of politics our Democratic friends are playing in Illinois is singular and exceptional even for these days of new things and new methods, said the Idaho senator. "Either Sherman or Sullivan will be elected. Every Republican who casts a vote for Mr. Robins casts half a vote in practical effect for Mr. Sullivan and thereby hangs a tale."

"Dudley Field Malone, a pronounced administration Democrat, a man who has often been entrusted with the confidence, if not the custodianship of the conscience of the president, comes to this state and advises Democrats that the president needs Sullivan at Washington. Just what they are getting ready to do I do not know, but Malone says the president needs him."

"Next comes Mr. Purleson, postmaster general, with his pithy and pathetic appeal, 'Vote for Sullivan and sustain the president,' a rather incongruous message on its face, unless we have been misled as to the president's ideals of politics, but the Texan is a member of the president's political family and would not bring that message unless authorized."

"Then comes your own gifted and richly endowed senator, Colonel James Hamilton Lewis, close to the administration, the whip of the senate, which means the lash of the president, and he pleads as few men can for Sullivan. Now all these are supposed to be sufficient to hold fast and firm every Democrat vote for Sullivan. Not a Democratic vote is supposed to escape to Robins."

"So, having arranged for the Democrats to vote for Sullivan, it is thought as a matter of precaution that it would be well to get a few Progressive Republicans to vote for Robins and thus obtain some half votes for Sullivan. So, behold! Senator Owen comes to Illinois and urges all voters who have not been made firm for Sullivan to vote for Robins."

MURRAYVILLE INSTITUTE WILL BE HELD THURSDAY

Program is Arranged for Meeting of Farmers Next Week.

It is the intention to hold but two Farmers' Institutes in Morgan county this year and the first one is to convene on Thursday, Nov. 5, at Murrayville, and will consist of two sessions. The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 o'clock and the evening session will open at 7:30 o'clock.

The committee having the arrangements in charge are anxious that there shall be a large number of farmers present at both sessions, and an effort is being made to have the schools in Murrayville and vicinity close so that pupils of the schools may have an opportunity to attend and hear the addresses which will be made by speakers who have had long and practical experience along the lines they will discuss. It is requested that those who may have fruits, cereals or vegetables they would like to display will bring them to the meeting that they may add to the interest of those who may be present. There has been arranged an excellent program which is as follows:

F. E. BALDWIN GJES

TO IMPORTANT NEW WORK

Young Jacksonville Attorney Will Be in Offices of Vedder & Vedder, Counsel for Swift & Company.

Announcement has just been made that F. E. Baldwin, who for a number of months has been an attorney for the Illinois Utility Commission, has resigned that position to go to one with larger responsibility in Chicago. Recently Mr. Baldwin was offered a position in the offices of Vedder & Vedder, a firm which for years has acted as general counsel for Swift & Company. The firm is an old established one and for many years has had charge of most of the legal business for Swift & Company as well as the personal legal business of members of the Swift family.

One member of the firm died not long ago and, although it is not desired to take in a new member just at this time, this will be the course followed within a year or two. There are twenty-five or more lawyers in the offices of the firm, but it was the desire of Mr. Vedder to secure a young down state attorney of good standing and with a knowledge of the general practice of law and with some experience in corporation law. He had been on the lookout for some time for an attorney who would meet these requirements and chanced, through a well known Chicago attorney, to hear of Mr. Baldwin. Negotiations were opened and, as stated above, were recently concluded and Mr. Baldwin is to enter upon his new duties early in the coming week, at a salary of $8,000 a year. It is understood, and with a strong probability of a more advantageous connection with the firm later on.

His position will be one of large responsibility, as the firm holds confidential relations with Swift & Company and the members of the family. The business of Vedder & Vedder is not limited to the Swift concern, but business for them is given the preference over any other. Large possibilities are thus opened up for the young Jacksonville attorney and he certainly has the ability to meet the conditions. Mr. Baldwin will go to Chicago Monday and Mrs. Baldwin and their daughter will follow later in the month.

ILLINOIS WILL PLAY WESLEYAN TOMORROW

Football Eleven and a Number of Rooters Will Leave on Early Alton Train for Bloomington.

What promises to be a football game of high rank will be played tomorrow at Bloomington when Illinois college meets Wesleyan. Coach Harmon has practically finished his training for the contest and expects to give Wesleyan eleven a run for the honors. On the other hand Wesleyan is likewise counting on a victory which the following from the Pantagraph would suggest.

"Coach Muhl of Wesleyan is confident that Illinois college will not have the easy sledding that they probably expect next Saturday. The Jacksonville team has made quite a record thus far this season, defeating Lincoln 107 to 0 and Shurtleff 67 to 0. Carthage was also defeated, but the score was not so large. There is no doubting the fact that Coach Harmon has a good football team, but the best have fallen, viz., Yale on last Saturday, and the local are using everything to get into proper shape."

One of the chief causes for elation on the part of Coach Muhl was the presence of "Bob" Johnson and Doocey in football togs yesterday. Johnson was one of the best ends in the conference last year, but has not been able to play football this season. Doocey was injured three weeks ago, but is now in shape and will be seen in the game Saturday. This gives the coach a well balanced team, with some good substitutes in waiting.

Johnson and M. Barnes will probably be used at ends; Bolin and Nickell, tackles; McDonald and Shirley, guards; Eagleton, center; Captain Dunham, quarter back; Doocey and Smith, half backs; McFarland, full back. There will be in reserve: Bentley, end and back field; Pitcher, Barnes, guard and Ward and er, tackle or back field; Pacey, half back; Callahan, end or half back; Duff, ends or half backs.

STEEL MAGNATES OPTIMISTIC AS TO GENERAL BUSINESS PROSPECTS

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 29.—Leaders in the iron and steel industry of the country discussed the past, present and future of the business at the annual banquet of the American Iron and Steel Institute here tonight. Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel corporation presided. The addresses were optimistic both as to the steel industry and as to general business prospects.

James Bowers, president of the Gulf States Steel Co., and George W. Connors, president of the local plant, declared the acquisition by the United States Steel Corporation of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Co., "marked an important epoch in the development of the industry in the Birmingham district."

Mr. Connors criticized the government's suit seeking to separate the Tennessee Co., from the steel corporation.

A. F. De Ornellas of Allen avenue has gone to Evanston to spend the winter. He was accompanied by his son Walter who will make a short visit with Mrs. Charles Kins. Mr. Ornellas' daughter.

PRIOR to 1880 there was no organization, no regulation of hours or shop conditions in the cigar industry. Chaos reigned. Health was bad. Pay was poor. Hours were long and employment unsteady. In addition, the influence of labor in securing remedial legislation was lacking, owing to lack of organization. The birth and growth of the American labor movement brought with it, through its economic strength and its legislative influence the remedial legislation, both in the union and governmental bodies, which has shown remarkable results as regards health in our industries.

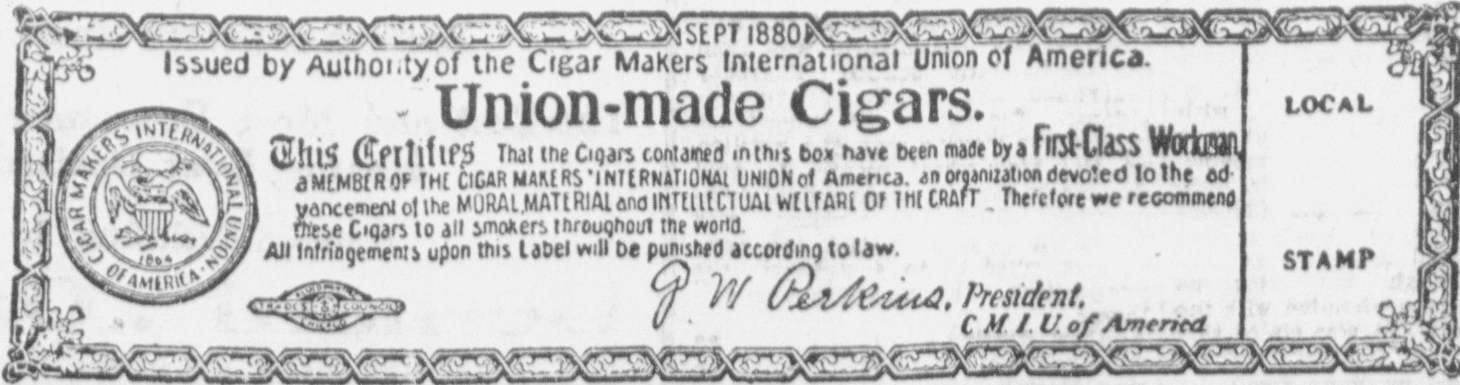

The following is taken from a report made by International President Perkins to the membership of the C. M. I. U. of A. It is a compilation of statistics gathered from the locals of the organization in the United States, Canada and Porto Rico. The figures are eminently correct and reliable. They indicate results obtained in the standard of health in the cigar industry through organization.

"In 1888, two years after the adoption of the eight-hour work day, 50 per cent of the deaths that year were caused by tuberculosis.

"In 1910, the total number of deaths was 588, of which number tuberculosis claimed 126, or 21 1-2 per cent.

"In 1911, the total number of deaths was 622, of which number tuberculosis claimed 136, or 20 1-10 per cent."

REPUBLICANS HELD
BIG MASS MEETINGCOURT HOUSE CROWDED FOR SPEAKING PROGRAM THURS-DAY NIGHT.

Address Made by Gideon Thompson of Chicago, a Plea for Republicans to Get Together and Work for Better Business Conditions—Other Speakers Pointed to Democratic Extravagance and the Bad Results of Tariff Tinkering.

The Republican mass meeting held at the court house Thursday night indicated very clearly that the Republicans of this county are very much interested in the present campaign. The court room was filled to overflowing, and although the program lasted for nearly two hours and a half, all of the speakers were accorded close attention.

E. E. H. Tichnor, chairman of the Morgan County Republican central committee, called the meeting to order and introduced as the chairman of the meeting, Andrew Russell, Republican candidate for state treasurer. Mr. Russell announced that the program would open with a selection by the Mallory orchestra and after this excellent number he called on Hugh Green as the first speaker. Mr. Green was followed by W. J. Butler and T. E. Lyon, Republican candidates for the legislature, E. S. Smith, Republican candidate for state senator, and Gideon Thompson, a Chicago attorney.

Must Bring Back Prosperity.
Mr. Thompson, until two years ago, was an ardent follower of Roosevelt and was very desirous of seeing him nominated. He told his audience last night that no one felt worse than he did when the nomination was denied Roosevelt. But the speaker said that later on awakening came and he saw the injustice of Roosevelt seeking to destroy the Republican party, simply because it would not grant to him, that which had been denied to every other American, a third presidential term. He said that when after the Republicans of Illinois had in a fair primary election chosen their candidates, Roosevelt insisted on bringing out another state ticket and Mr. Thompson believed that this action was absolutely contrary to the principle expressed in the Progressive slogan, "Let the people rule." So Mr. Thompson's special plea was that, since the division of the Republican party brought the Democrats into power and so resulted in present unsatisfactory business conditions, that simply for the good of the country at large, if for no other reason, it was time for Republicans to forget their differences and to elect those men who would bring back prosperity.

In his brief remarks Mr. Green, in a very succinct way, pointed out the troubles which have come to pass in a business way from Democracy's tampering with the tariff. He asserted that every time the Democratic party took any action with reference to the tariff that business stagnation resulted, and then produced figures to prove his statement.

Democrats Inconsistent.

Mr. Butler made a more extended address and referred at some length to the family ties which bound him closely to Morgan county and assured his auditors that, if elected, he could be counted upon to consider the interests of both Morgan and Sangamon counties with equal care. Mr. Butler then attacked the Democratic administration for unfulfilled pledges and dwelt especially upon the action with reference to Panama shipping tolls as being absolutely contrary to a pre-election pledge. He asserted that Wilson, outwitted by Huerta in matters of diplomacy, had traded off the Panama canal to England in return for the latter's withdrawal of recognition of Huerta's government. Then, in a very witty way, the speaker pointed out how differently the Democratic leaders viewed Roger Sullivan before the primary and afterward. He said that before the election Governor Dunne had referred to Sullivan as a train robber politician and as fully unfit for the office he was seeking, but that subsequent to the primary he sat upon the same platform with the Chicago boss and later introduced him as the magnificent candidate of the party. Mr. Butler also asserted that the recent visit to Illinois of Paul Malone, collector of the port of New York, moved conclusively that President Wilson is supporting the Sullivan candidacy, for, he asserted that Malone undoubtedly voiced the wishes of the administration.

Voting the Straight Ticket.

Mr. Lyon explained to the audience that it had been his practice never to campaign in this county prior to the primary election because he believed that some Morgan county man should have first choice if the voters so desired. He said that he stood upon his record in the legislature and that he had endeavored in the past to look after the interest of Morgan as well as Sangamon county and that if chosen again he would follow the same course. For the sake of the state and for the sake of the nation in the matter of business prosperity he made a strong plea for a straight vote of the Republican ticket.

Mr. Smith took up briefly the record of the Republican party, especially as the party of prosperity and laid emphasis upon the fact that only as American industry is protected can business in the large sense flourish. He assured the voters that if elected next Tuesday, he would in every way possible give aid to the state institutions located here, that he would favor business administration all through the state, and would be opposed to graft or any form.

Mr. Thompson was introduced by Mr. Russell as an attorney well known at Chicago bar. Mr. Thompson spoke in a way at once both conversational and oratorical, referring to the record of the Republican party, to the record of the Democratic party, to the present business conditions and the fitness of the three candidates for the United States senate. In talking about the tariff he did not attempt to make any technical speech, referring rather to conditions in a general way. Mr. Thompson's style of oratory is convincing and his audience heard him with great interest.

In talking about the tariff he said that disturbed business conditions had followed every effort the Democratic party had made to revise the tariff. "It was so in 1892 and '93, and disturbed conditions came on immediately after the present congress got into power and business realized the intention to change tariff provisions. There was some tightening up of business shortly after congress passed into Democratic control, and this has been accentuated by the passage of time as the tariff revision has come into effect. The people of this country know full well that a revision of the tariff according to Democratic standards does not mean business prosperity, but instead means business stagnation, and one has to but visit the cities and the manufacturing centers today to get a proof of this statement."

Democratic Extravagance.

Mr. Thompson decried the effort that the Democrats have made when acknowledging that business conditions are not normal, to accredit the stagnation to the war in Europe. He pointed out that the war in Europe came as a great surprise to all the world, late in the summer, whereas the changed business conditions had taken effect months before that time. The speaker called attention, too, to the great extravagance of the Democratic national administration in the passage of some measures calling for vast expenditure of money, and said that extravagance seemed to be a party characteristic, if one were to judge by the record made in Illinois.

"Two years ago the Democrats in their campaign had a great deal to say about the tax rate having increased so greatly under Republican administration by comparison with the under Altgeld, and made no reference to the increased cost of living in general as having a bearing on this matter. As a matter of fact, however, the Democratic party had not been in power a full year until it was known that the tax rate had been doubled over what it had been under previous Republican administration."

That War Tax.

Mr. Thompson referred to the Democratic promise to reduce the cost of living and said that it is now true that living cost is much higher than it was before Democratic ascendancy. He talked, too, of the war tax which is expected to raise $125,000,000 from the people, and said a war tax had never been known in the past under Republican administration unless a war actually existed, whereas the present tax is simply to make up the deficit caused by other Democratic legislation. Mr. Thompson attacked Roosevelt and others for coming into this state in an effort to defeat Lawrence Y. Sherman, and expressed surprise that these outsiders should think it necessary to come here to Illinois to tell the people of this state about "Larry" Sherman, whose life had been spent practically within the confines of Illinois, and whose history is an open book. He eulogized the ability and the innate history of the Illinois senator and reviewed something of his career which started under very humble circumstances.

The speaker traced Sherman's interesting life from boyhood up to the time when he fitted himself for practicing law, the struggle of after years and the final days when the young lawyer gained recognition and became a conspicuous figure in Illinois politics. Mr. Thompson was a great believer in Roosevelt and an enthusiastic supporter of him up until the time of the Chicago convention, but he had been unable to make himself feel that Mr. Roosevelt acted properly in withdrawing from the Republican party and organizing another because the Republican party refused to give him a third nomination, a favor which had been denied to Washington and to Lincoln and to every other leader in the party.

Robins a Visionary.

Speaking further on the senatorship, Mr. Thompson emphasized the fact that these are times when men in casting their votes must think about business conditions and suggested that every voter who was fully satisfied with Democratic policies and results and who wished a continuation of the same should cast his vote for Sullivan. He questioned, however, the desirability simply from a business standpoint of taking any action which would lead to encouragement to the party in power. He referred to Raymond Robins, the Progressive candidate, as a man of high motives and clean character, but said that he was a visionary and impractical type. He traced the career of Robins from the time that he started out as a supporter of Bryan and an advocate of free silver. He went on to say that Robins had been a supporter, too, of Wilson and had been lined up with the party until Mr. Roosevelt gave the Progressive party such impetus. The speaker referred to Mr. Robins' connection with the Chicago board of education, when it was clearly evidenced that he was impractical, although his intentions were the best in connection with the Chicago schools. It was stated that

C. H. THOMPSON, Mgr.

ADVOCATES STATE SUPERVISION OF HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENT

Assistant Director of U. S. Office of Public Roads Addresses Northwestern Road Congress at Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Oct. 29.—That our road problem is of such magnitude to demand adequate attention and that the chief cause of inefficient supervision of our road making and upkeep is extreme localization, were statements by P. St. K. Wilson, assistant director of the United States office of public roads, in addressing today's session of the Northwestern Road Congress in session here.

"I believe that the remedy for localization lies in state control and that this state control should extend not merely to the mileage of roads improved with the aid of the state funds but to practically the entire road mileage of the state," he said. "Further, state road administration must be taken out of politics and the best way to accomplish this is through the establishment of a non-partisan commission to select the principal officials and the establishment of a competitive merit system of appointment for a subordinate officials and employees and that county road administration should be based upon the same principle of appointment by merit, through competitive tests."

In speaking of the magnitude of our road problem in the United States, Mr. Wilson stated that we have a total of two and a quarter million miles of road, of which not more than ten per cent can be classed as improved roads. In 1913 the United States spent over two hundred and five million dollars in road improvement.

Under the new highway law enacted in Illinois in 1913 that state has outlined a system of state aid roads, embracing a total of about 16,000 miles which will run throughout the state, connecting all the principal centers of population in every county and covering the state so thoroughly that no point will be more than four and a half miles from the state road system, according to the statement of A. D. Gash, president of the Illinois Highway Commission.

"The cost of the state aid roads system will be about $180,000,000," he said. "The saving on automobiles alone by reason of improved roads in twenty years will more than pay that amount and the saving on farm vehicles and products, or the value of increased rapidity or facility of transportation will amount to more than that sum," he added.

LONGFELLOW'S BIRTH-PLACE DEDICATED.
Portland, Maine, Oct. 29.—The ancient house in Portland where Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, America's most famous poet, first saw light of day, was opened to the public today. Fully restored to its original condition, today was selected for the dedication as coincident with the State Teacher's convention, and the state's most prominent educators with learned men from many places, gathered for the event.

The house is situated at the corner of Fore and Hancock streets. It is a spacious three-story house of some architectural pretensions and was in its day one of the best houses of the town. The heavy pine timbers are in a good state of preservation and will stand for another century. There is a fireplace in nearly every room. The house was built in 1800, and although it had undergone some changes, the International Longfellow Society has succeeded in restoring it thoroughly.

The room in which the poet was born is in the second story front on the eastern side. The yard was surrounded by a slate fence, and was terraced. On each side was a tall Lombardy poplar and shrubbery and an old-fashioned flower garden filled the yard. When the poet was born, on February 27, 1807, the Longfellow was staying at the house as guests of Captain Samuel Stephenson, who was on a voyage to the West Indies. The Longfellow home was on Congress street, and the home is today maintained as a Longfellow Museum and contains many family and personal relics.

Another Longfellow memorial here is Deering Oaks, now converted into a park, of which Longfellow wrote in "My Lost Youth." The visitors today also went to Eastern Cemetery, where they viewed the graves, side by side, of Captain Barrows and Captain Blythe, who commanded the Enterprise and Boxer in the Naval Battle off Portland Harbor, and of whom the poet wrote:

"I remember the sea fight far away,
How it thundered o'er the tide,
And the dead captains as they lay
In their graves overlooking the tranquil bay
Where they in battle died."

MARRIED FIFTY-THREE YEARS.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Metcalf of South Main street were united in marriage at Waverly, Oct. 29, 1861, parents in Waverly. They just 53 years ago yesterday. They went on a wedding trip to Chicago and on their return made their home in this city where they have continued to reside. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf are both in the enjoyment of good health and their hosts of friends will wish for them many years of happiness yet to come. Mr. Metcalf, after a busy life in mercantile pursuits, some years since retired from active duties and is enjoying his declining days in peace with his family and friends whom he is always ready to greet with a warm clasp of the hand.

WAR IS BENEFIT TO U. S. POSTAL SAVINGS

Receipts Began to Increase From Outbreak of European Hostilities.

The war in Europe is proving a big boon to postal savings in this country. From the very day hostilities opened across the seas postal savings began to increase by leaps and bounds and withdrawals fell off, a result quite contrary to the predictions of many well-informed persons who, in their imagination, saw lines of feverish depositors at post-office pay windows anxious to again return their savings to the boot-leg and body-belt depositories whence they came before intrusted to Uncle Sam. But the forecasters failed to reckon on the absolute confidence of the American citizen, regardless of the flag that first met his eyes, in the ability and purpose of the government to carry out its obligations, not only among the nations of the earth, but with the humblest citizen of our land.

Two important results have followed; thousands of people, largely of foreign birth, accustomed to send their savings abroad, are now patrons of our postal-savings system; and enormous sums of actual cash have been released for commercial uses among our own people at a time when the need for every available dollar is pressing.

The growth of postal savings in the United States has been steady and healthy and the system has filled an important gap between the tin-can depository and the factory paymaster. On July 1, when affairs were running smoothly here and abroad and the transmission of money across the Atlantic was safe and expeditious, there was approximately $43,000,000 of postal savings standing to the credit of about 388,000 depositors. Since then over $10,000,000 of deposits have been added and the number of depositors has increased enormously. This unprecedented gain is the more striking when it is considered that the net gain in the last three months is larger than the gain for the entire fiscal year 1914. Scores of offices have done more postal-savings business since the war has been going on than was done by them during the previous existence of the service. The increases are confined to no special localities, but have been felt in every nook and corner of the country. New York City alone made a gain in September of more than a million, while Brooklyn showed a relatively big increase. Chicago reported a larger gain in the past three months than for the previous twelve months. More than 7,000 new accounts were opened during the period, bringing the number of depositors in that city up to over 21,000.

Fall Musings

The summer is over, retired is the plow; the millet and clover are safe in the mow; the cornfield is yet low, in sunshine awash, the pumpkin is mellow, and so is the squash; and so is the singer, who warbles with zest, to Autumn, the bringer of coolness and rest. She brings us a number of ardent delights, including a slumber unbroken at nights. How sweet is our sleeping, how tuncful our snore, when Autumn is keeping her watch at the door! No fly or mosquito to break up our rest, no chigger to teeter around on our chest! The pests are all banished when Autumn arrives, they've scooted and vaulted, and swivel their lives! The evenings are longer, and slowly they go, the wind's growing stronger, and whispers of snow. How pleasant I find it, to sit by the fire, the backlog behind it, and punish my lyre, or read a good novel by H. Rider Doyle, while around me my cheap hovel the storm makes turmoil. But soon I am yawning, and bedward I creep, and then at the dawning like thunder I sleep, when new, when cook sounds the warning that sinkers are due! How sweet is the season of frost and of squall; we surely have reason to stand up for Fall.

MILLER FAMILY SHIP BODY BACK TO KENOSHA, WIS.

Body Not That of Selden Miller Who Dropped from Sight Nearly a Year Ago.

Philadelphia, Oct. 29.—Members of the family of Selden Miller shipped back to Kenosha, Wis., today the body sent here from that place after it had been identified as that of Mr. Miller. Physicians and the Miller family discovered the mistake. They say that either the wrong body was disinterred at Kenosha or the theory of Miller's death may be wrong and that he is still alive. Acting on this hope the family today renewed their efforts to locate the man who dropped from sight a year ago.

Miller was the son of the late E. Spencer Miller, at one time a widely known attorney in this city. Selden Miller was a musician of note. He was the leader of the People's Choir Union, an organist and a teacher of music. No reason for his disappearance has ever been discovered.

UPHOLDS STATE AUDITOR.

Springfield, Oct. 29.—In the Sangamon county circuit court today Judge Creighton gave a decision upholding State Auditor Brady in refusing to grant a permit to organize the Bermond State Bank of Morgan Park, with a capital of $25,000. The auditor refused the permit on the ground that Morgan Park was likely to be annexed to Chicago and in that city state banks are required to have a capital of $200,000. An appeal was taken to the appellate court.

CONFERS WITH NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE COMMITTEE

British Representative Outlines Views on Economic Aspects of the War as Affecting England and America.

New York, Oct. 29.—Sir George Paish, representing the British government, who has been in Washington for the past fortnight consulting with treasury officials and bankers from various sections of the country relative to an adjustment of credit conditions between this country and Great Britain, held a conference here today with the committee controlling the affairs of the New York stock exchange.

Sir George, it is said, outlined to this committee his views on the economic aspects of the war as affecting England and America and particularly with regard to the reopening of the various exchanges in this country. He was of the opinion that resumption of business by American exchanges should be effected as speedily as possible. He thought that many of the obstacles recently in the path of financial and commercial progress had been removed and he said he saw infallible signs of restoration of confidence both here and in England.

Sir George further told the committee he believed that liquidation of American securities by English holders would be small when the time came to resume market operations and that American financial resources would not be touched in the absorption of such offerings.

Sir George said he was still without definite information as to when the London stock exchange would reopen but his latest advice was to the effect that all the leading financial institutions in England were working in concert with the London exchange towards that end.

After the conference Sir George visited the offices of J. P. Morgan & Co. and the cotton exchange. The British financial envoy said his conferences and conversations in this city were simply preliminary to the consultations which are to be continued in Washington tomorrow.

EXPRESS INVESTIGATION WILL OPEN TOMORROW.

Washington, Oct. 29.—An investigation into the charges of the classification of express matter will open here tomorrow before the Interstate Commerce Commission. The questions involved include many changes in rates. For many months the companies have been reviving their classification of express matter in conformity with suggestions of the commission. It is believed that the changes to be passed upon will be approved.

WAGING WAR ON DEBTORS.

Philadelphia, Oct. 29.—J. A. McKee, Jr., secretary of the Philadelphia Association of Credit Men has been sworn in as a policeman. With this added club to enforce payment of bills, the association will pursue a relentless warfare on fraudulent debtors.

Boy or Girl? Great Question!

This brings to many minds an old and tried family remedy—an external application known as "Mother's Friend." During the period of expectancy it is applied to the abdominal muscles and is designed to soothe the intricate network of nerves involved. In this manner it has such a splendid influence as to justify its use in all cases of coming motherhood. It has been generally recommended for years and years and those who have used it speak in highest praise of the immense relief it affords. Particularly do those knowing mothers speak of the absence of morning sickness, absence of strain on the ligaments and freedom from those many other distresses which are usually looked forward to with so much concern.

There is no question but what "Mother's Friend" has a marked tendency to relieve the mind and this of itself in addition to the physical relief has given it a very wide popularity among women. It is absolutely safe to use, renders the skin pliable, is penetrating in its nature and is composed of those embrocations best suited to thoroughly lubricate the nerves, muscles, tendons and ligaments involved.

You can obtain "Mother's Friend" at almost any drug store. The regular price is $1.00 a bottle.

It is prepared only by Bradford, Regulator Co., 501 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Avoid the many worthless substitutes. It should be remembered that what is said of "Mother's Friend" is the thought expressed by the thousands of women who have successfully used it and recommended it through two generations.

fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately. Don't lay awake to-night struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing; catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless. Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm"—and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

MRS. TROUT REVIEWS YEAR'S SUFFRAGE WORK

PRESIDENT OF ILLINOIS ASSOCIATION TELLS OF PROGRESS

Reasons Given for Seeming Inactivity of Officers—Purpose Has Been to Avoid All Factional Strife—Predicts Full Suffrage as Near at Hand.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—It has been a momentous year—one of "watchful waiting and wakeful watching"—Grace Wilbur Trout, president of the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association, told delegates to the 46th annual convention of that organization here tonight.

Mrs. Trout, who is a candidate for reelection, explained reasons for the attitude of the officers of the association on certain matters which have caused some dispute among factions. In the main the attitude of her administration has been conservative for the purpose of making secure the concession of limited suffrage granted by the legislature.

That security, she said, has been obtained for the supreme court of the state last May upheld the validity of the suffrage law and recently denied a rehearing to its opponents.

No direct methods, other than the retaining of counsel, were used to influence the court but the leaders of the movement were alert to influence public sentiment by all fair means as, for instance, in the holding of a parade last summer.

Avoided Strife. As instances of the fixity with which this line of conduct was adhered, Mrs. Trout cited the declaration of the association to enter the fight, which a faction carried to defeat in the court, to permit women in Cook county to vote for county commissioners and its refusal to join the congressional committee in its blacklist of antagonistic congressmen.

The speaker said that the association was constantly requested by one group of women or another to reform movements and its refusal was based on the overshadowing fact that the making secure of what they had already gained, namely the right to vote, was precedent to effective work for collateral reforms.

Mrs. Trout explained that in educating women voters the association is not trying to create partisans, but merely to show them the way to vote their own convictions.

Predicts Full Suffrage.

"We can all push forward with the conviction that full suffrage will soon be ours," said Mrs. Trout, "because unto him that hath shall be given." She added that people everywhere are realizing that it is only a question of time before equal suffrage will be established in every state. Speaking of the war she said: "The fierce, intolerable injustice of it all burns into our souls. Women had no voice, no part in the planning of this war, and their only alternative is to endure, endure, endure—until they too go down into the valley of the shadow where their loved ones have preceded them. If those Russian, Austrian, Belgian, French and English mothers could have spoken at the polls do you suppose that they would have filled up the trenches with the bleeding, mangled bodies of fathers, husbands, brothers and sons? No, a thousand times no."

A rum session of the Illinois Equal Suffrage association was held late this afternoon to permit Mrs. Medill McCormick, chairman of the congressional committee of the national woman's suffrage association, to finish her report. About one hundred delegates attended.

The state organization, which is affiliated with the national body, declined to support the program of the national leaders, which included the blacklisting of candidates opposed to equal suffrage.

Mr. McCormick told of the work of the congressional committee of the national association but she made no mention of the events of the afternoon.

That a letter had been circulated among members of the Illinois association charging Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, president of the association with the misappropriation of funds was learned when Miss Jennie Johnson, treasurer made her report. She branded the letter as a falsehood and asserted it to be an anonymous attempt to besmirch the president. Miss Johnson is not a candidate for re-election.

That the next legislature would have more friends for universal suffrage than the last one was the prediction of Mrs. Sherman Booth, chairman of the legislative committee in her report. She said she had received replies from 154 candidates before the primary and that 142 of them were against the repeal of the common suffrage law. Most of these were nominated, she said.

The nominating committee, which is said to favor the renomination of the administration was elected as follows: Dr. Lucy White, Chicago, chairman; Mrs. E. L. Stillman, Chicago; Mrs. Charles Nagely, Chicago; Mrs. Villa Coleace, Joliet; Mrs. G. W. Drury, Galesburg.

ARE YOU A HIGHBROW?

Why is it that, no matter how much we make fun of the highbrow, we very much resent classification with the lowbrow? Under the caption "High Low Jack and the Game" Bert Leston Taylor in the Chicago Tribune has submitted a standard of judging which should enable us to tell where we belong. The synonyms are originally from a Boston paper and divide the populace into four classes. What are your tastes?

Highbrow: Browning, anthropology, economics, Bacon, the uplift, inherent sin, Gibbon, the fourth dimension, Euripides, "eether", pate de foie gras, lemon phosphate, Henry Jabot Lodge, Woodrow Wilson.

Low-highbrow: Municipal government, Kipling socialism, Shakespeare politics, Thackeray, taxation, golf, grand opera, bridge, chicken a la Maryland, "eether", stocks and bonds, gin rickey, Theodore Roosevelt, chewing gum in private.

High-lowbrow: Musical comedy, Richard Harding Davis, euchre, baseball, moving pictures, small steak medium, Ella Wheeler Wilcox, Robert W. Chambers, purple socks, chewing gum with friends.

Lowbrow: Laura Jane Libbey, ham sandwich, haven't come, pitch, I and her melodrama, hair oil, the Duchess, beer red flannels, toothpicks, Big Tim, Bathhouse John, chewing gum in public.

REPUBLICANS HELD MASS MEETING

there were others on the board at the same time, all of them more or less impractical and visionary, and the result was that there was no common goal of action and the result was well nigh disastrous for the school system. The speaker put it up to his Republican auditors in a very tactful way that under present conditions it was not a time for any difference of opinion and that for the good of business in general the party should work as a unit to secure the return to Republican control.

Mr. Thompson spoke in a very complimentary way of the candidacy of Mr. Russell, who he said was a man for whom he had long had the greatest admiration. He said that Mr. Russell's standing at home and throughout the state should certainly give him the office which he is seeking, and which he is so well qualified to fill, if the members of the two divisions of the Republican party can only see that in the coming election it is for their common good to get together once more.

Before he closed Mr. Thompson rapped sharply at the statements made by the Progressives when they decried bipartisanship as referred to Mr. Sherman. He said that if a Democrat voted for Mr. Sherman the Progressive candidate was ready with the cry of bipartisanship, and yet the same Progressives were urgent in their request that Democrats and Republican support Robins. And in such cases, they called it not bipartisanship but nonpartisanship. In other words, it seems that the Progressives are ready to make a distinction which is not founded upon a real difference. Altogether Mr. Thompson made an excellent address and of a kind calculated to make his audience think of the great underlying questions in the present campaign.

Mr. Russell had been called away near the close of Mr. Thompson's speech and Hugh Green, acting as chairman, asked support for every Republican on the state legislative and county ticket. The meeting adjourned after another selection by the orchestra.

PLIGHT TROTH IN PRETTY HOME RITE

MISS MAE ALLINSON SCOTT AN OCTOBER BRIDE.

Was Married to Mr. Arthur L. Van Winkle of Franklin at Home of Parents Last Night.—Young People Will Make Their Home on a Farm.

The marriage of Mr. Arthur L. Van Winkle and Miss Mae Allinson Scott was solemnized Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ezra C. Scott, 1156 South Main street. Dr. J. R. Harker, president of the Woman's College, officiating.

The Scott home was attractively decorated for the occasion in the colors green and yellow. In the living room where the ceremony was said potted plants, asparagus and ferns had been artistically arranged and a beautiful arch had been constructed, from the center of which hung a large white wedding bell. In the parlor were potted plants, and autumn leaves were used in the hall way, while the dining room was tastefully decorated in pink flowers and potted plants.

The musical program was given by Miss Jeanette Scott, a sister of the bride. She played "Le Crepuscule" by T. Chay, the Bridal March from "Lohengrin," as the bridal party entered and "To a Wild Rose" by Mac Dowell, while the ceremony was being performed. During congratulations she played "Moon Moths" by Albert Kussner.

The first to appear of the bridal party were the bridesmaids, Miss Maude Van Winkle, a sister of the bride, and Miss Ruth Hembrough, a niece of the bride. The former wore a gown of light blue chiffon trimmed in embroidered lace and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Miss Hembrough wore a dress of crepe de chene of salmon pink trimmed in shadow lace and carried pink carnations. The ring bearer was Glenna Ruth Carlisle, who was dressed in white.

The bride and groom entered at the same time. She wore a gown of silk shower lace over messaline trimmed with German bead lace and a head necklace, which her mother wore at her wedding forty-six years ago. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and wore a bar pin set with pearls, a gift of the groom.

The marriage was performed in an impressive manner by Dr. J. R. Harker, ending with a fervent prayer for the blessings of God to follow the young people through life.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Scott, and has always made Jacksonville her home. She is a graduate of the high school with the class of 1904 and of the Woman's college in 1906. She supplemented her literary studies with work in the State Normal. She is a member of Grace M. E. church and has always been interested in the work of the church, having for a long time been president of the Queen Esther circle. She is also a member of the Eastern Star. Possessed with many lovable qualities of heart and life she has ever held the sincere friendship of a wide circle of friends.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Van Winkle of Franklin and is a graduate of the Vawter high school with the class of 1903. Since that time he has followed the occupation of a farmer in which he has been successful. He is accounted a young man of good business judgment and progressive in ideas and well thought of by his acquaintances. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church of Franklin. He and his father have recently purchased the old Van Winkle homestead, where the young people will make their home after a brief wedding trip.

Following the ceremony a two course supper was served. In cutting the wedding cake the following received the various gifts: ring, Maebel Curry, key, Miss Martha Hudson; darling, Needle, Mrs. E. R. Hembrough. The young people were the recipients of many beautiful and useful wedding gifts.

Among the guests from away were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Van Winkle, Miss Maude Van Winkle, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sears, Otis and Homer Van Winkle of Franklin; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Funk, Mr. and Mrs. M. Van Winkle and daughters Eunice and Cora of Waverly; Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson, Prentice; Miss Martha Hudson, Carlville; Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Moeller, Orleans.

The Willing Workers of Pisgah church will hold a market Saturday, Oct. 31, at Johnson, Hackett & Guthrie's.

WRITES OF GEORGE TANDY.

Jack Nye writing in the "Tennessean" says that the one year rule kept George Tandy out of Vanderbilt university. This statement came out as the result of Tandy playing a star game at center on the North Carolina university team when it defeated Vanderbilt recently. In poetry the words were, "The fact is Mr. Tandy, We wish you were at Vandy". Mr. Nye speaks of the visit of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Tandy to Nashville on the occasion of the game there and praises the work of George in a well written article of his career in athletics, speaking especially of his training received in the Jacksonville high school.

In speaking of Tandy's work in the Vanderbilt game the paper says: "Tandy seemed to be into every play. In addition to being a wonderful defensive player he is also a drop-kicker of much ability. He was successful in one of his three attempts at field goals, but his misses were from long distances. On one occasion he tried a field goal from the 47-yard line which went outside the goal post one foot."

WILL ELECTRIFY C., P. & St. L. ROAD

NEW CARS WILL BE READY FOR SERVICE MONDAY.

Two Cars Will Constitute Train and Same Schedule Will be Used as Heretofore, Between Jacksonville and Havana.—New "Y" Built.

If the plans work out which the C. P. and St. L. road has commenced, gas electric cars will be installed Monday on the division running from here to Havana, a distance of 42 miles. The cars are being made ready at Springfield. The same schedule will be maintained.

There will be two cars. The first combination car will contain the engine room, baggage apartment and coach seating 93 people. This car is 71 feet long. It will pull a second car divided into a baggage, mail car and smoker. On account of having to ship large quantities of fish over this division two baggage apartments are necessary.

These cars are equipped with mammoth gasoline engines which are connected to a generator at the extreme front of the car. This generator generates the electricity which in turn is fed to two motors on front trucks of car. The cars are equipped with the Baker heater, which heats the car at a comfortable temperature at all times. The generators are equal to 275 horse power.

The work of electrifying this division of the C. P. has only been planned definitely since the last thirty days. It means a system of economy and absence of smoke and dirt being a benefit to the public in many ways. The company has these cars in use now from Peoria to St. Louis and find them very serviceable.

A new "Y" is being put in north of Independence avenue, because the old turn table is only 60 feet long and the new cars are 71 feet in length.

MATRIMONIAL

Davenport-Vick.

Relatives in the city have received announcement of the marriage of Homer L. Davenport and Miss Nellie M. Vick, which took place recently in Chicago, the home city of both. The groom is a former resident of Jacksonville and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Davenport, 302 East Michigan avenue. He was reared in the county and received his education here and at Bushnell, Ill. Mr. Davenport is employed in the government mail service.

Some sneak thief took a rake from a porch on West College avenue last night. The fellow was seen in the act, but the rake has not been returned.

NO DIPHTHERIA EPIDEMIC.

The rumor of a diphtheria epidemic in the public schools which for the past few days has been current, has proved entirely groundless. Miss Izola Jacoby of the seventh grade was taken with the disease and as an extra precautionary measure the rooms were fumigated Tuesday in the grammar school building. Miss Jacoby was removed from school in due time and as no new cases have developed there seems to be no reason whatever for the fears prevalent.

AMERICAN LEAGUE MAGNATES CALLED TOGETHER FOR NOV. 6TH.

President Johnson Sends Out Call For Meeting.—Refuses to Say What Matters Will Be Discussed.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Instead of waiting until the middle of December for the annual meeting of the American Baseball League club owners of that organization have been called together for November 6, when it was announced business of great importance would be up for discussion.

The call for the meeting was sent out today by B. B. Johnson, president of the American League. He refused to indicate what the important matters to be discussed were. As the meeting will be just before the annual meeting of the minor leagues in Omaha, it was reported the majors would delve into the troubles of the little fellows and attempt to find means to assist them.

Johnson declared no peace proposition would be submitted to the Federals, ridiculed the report that Walter Johnson of Washington had signed with the St. Louis Federals and said it would be impossible for Roger Bresnahan to take over an association team in Ohio.

"I have just read some correspondence dealing with Bresnahan's status", he said, "and as this player is under contract with the Chicago club, he has no right to talk terms with the Brooklyn Federals nor to attempt to purchase the Toledo Association franchise."

BANKERS TO MAKE CRUISE
Baltimore, Oct. 29.—To afford representative business of the United States an opportunity to study possibilities of the commercial banking conditions of every important city in Central and South America, a local financial institution has perfected plans for a cruise around the lower part of the hemisphere.

The Finland, an American built and American registered vessel of 22,000 tons displacement, has been chartered and will steam from New York January 27th. She is expected to reach Panama for passage through the canal, homeward bound, on April 29th.
